The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On September 15, 2013, Maywood Police Department officers were called to 78 Howecroft Road on a report of an unwanted party. Upon arrival, officers learned that the offender was attempting to enter the residence to obtain his wallet and keys from Ayme Frometa, who he claimed to be his girlfriend, but she would not let him in. Ms. Frometa subsequently informed them that the offender was a former boyfriend whom she had no contact with for over one month. She denied having his possessions and requested that he be asked by the officers to leave the premises.

Upon being questioned further by the officers, the offender stated his name was Mark Jonathan Canchucaja, with a date of birth of October 16, 1990. The offender repeated this several times to the officers. An inquiry via the patrol vehicle's InfoCop system ultimately disputed this information and revealed the offender's true identity. Upon being confronted with the information, the offender admitted he had lied in fear. The offender was arrested and charged with providing false information to a law enforcement officer and hindering apprehension. Ms. Frometa declined to obtain a temporary restraining order or file a criminal complaint against the offender.

The offender was released on his own recognizance. An appearance in Maywood Municipal Court has not yet been scheduled.

- 2 The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.'

The offender failed to report the aforementioned arrest to the undersigned probation officer within the 72-hour time period as required by his conditions of probation.

- 3 The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.'

During an office visit on September 8, 2013, the offender was asked by the undersigned officer if he had any recent contact with law enforcement, which he denied, stating he is "doing everything right." When asked again and presented with the Maywood Police Department arrest report, the offender then admitted to the law enforcement contact and arrest.
